

Children of Courage Awards

Children of Courage awards

Extraordinary children were recognised in a special awards ceremony.

The five youngsters were joined by their proud families, teachers, business sponsors and members of the Rotary Club of Biggleswade Ivel for the Children of Courage Awards presentations at Jordans Mill in Broom on March 18.

They were also joined by dignitaries including the Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Bedfordshire Ruth Bell MBE, High Sheriff of Bedfordshire Colin Osborne Esq MBE, Sir Samuel Whitbread KCVO, chairman of Central Bedfordshire Council Caroline Maudlin, Biggleswade Town Councillor George Wilson, guest Speaker Chris Rattenbury who is an ambassador for the charity Wheel Power, district governor Ken Billington, assistant governor Mary Whitehead.

Representatives of local businesses included, Ashley-Edison UK, Dave Allen Collectables, Potton Charitable Trust, George Hay Accountants, Jordans Mill, Langford Nurseries and Garden Centre, Mantles Group. and Liebherr UK who generously sponsored the Awards, Liz McCartney, co-ordinator of Children of Courage, said: "The Rotary Club of Biggleswade Ivel is indebted to the sponsors and honored guests of this wonderful event as without them and the generosity of Rotary Club members the Children of Courage Awards 2015 could not have taken place.

"It has made five young people very happy, their families and teachers very proud and has offered an opportunity for making new contacts within our community.

"The smiles on the faces of the recipients of the awards and their supporters said it all."

Rodney Codega with Sir Samuel Whitbread. and Honey McKenna with Colin Osborne.

Adam Tripp and Ruth Bell