

Hannah Cooper and Caroline Maudlin.

Jake Ambler and George Wilson.

Awards go to...

■ Jake Ambler of Ivel Valley School, Biggleswade, who despite learning difficulties is coping positively with a debilitating neurological condition.

■ Rodney Codega of Henlow CE Academy, who despite many disadvantages in his young life in Brazilian slums has now settled down in his new school with enthusiasm and success.

■ Hannah Cooper of Henlow CE Academy, who copes with good humour and fortitude with severely restricted mobility, inspiring other students.

■ Honey McKenna of Sandye Place Academy, who takes part enthusiastically in school activities, inspiring other students, despite two serious systemic conditions, and regular stays in hospital.

■ Adam Tripp of St Andrews CV Lower School, Biggleswade has a debilitating congenital condition, which restricts his growth and mobility – yet he joins in school activities wherever possible and remains positive and cheerful.