School's sporty golden girls qualify for national finals

Two pupils from Henlow Church of England Academy have been praised for winning a regional gymnastics gold.

Anna Goakes, who has epilepsy, and wheelchair user Hannah Cooper will now compete in a national gymnastic final in the disability section. Mum Elena Goakes, of Clifton, said: "I'm so proud of Anna and Hannah in achieving the gold medal.

"They have formed a great friendship since meeting in Year 5 and have not let their conditions affect their goals.

"The school has been instrumental in helping and encouraging them."
