Our Mission Statement

“Inspiring Learning”

1. Policy Statement

At Henlow CE Academy, learner behaviour is of the highest standard and relationships between all members of the academy community are consistently attributed to the Christian character and values of the academy. In order to facilitate inspiring teaching and learning, high standards of behaviour must be demonstrated in all aspects of Academy life.

We will encourage and foster good standards of behaviour, good personal relationships and respect for individuals through the HENLOW values (Honesty, Enthusiasm, Nurture, Love, Organisation and Wisdom) and through a clear understanding of our rights and responsibilities as pupils, parents/carers and members of staff.

We will establish and maintain an ethos and environment which reflect the Christian values that underpin our thinking. “And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.”
Ephesians 4:32

3. Definition

3.1. The phrase 'behaviour for learning' conceptualises the following three relationships experienced by a pupil:

- Their relationship with themselves, e.g. their self-confidence as a learner
- Their relationship with others, e.g. how they socially interact
- Their relationship with the curriculum, e.g. how best they learn

3.2. In order to foster a positive learning environment in Henlow CE Academy, these relationships must be developed and supported.

3.3. Most social, emotional and behavioural skills are learned, rather than focussing on unwanted behaviours, the behaviour for learning approach puts value on positive behaviours, which enable and maximise learning. We do recognise that unwanted behaviours must still be tackled; this policy aims to achieve both elements.

3.4. Our approach helps pupils understand the behavioural skills they need, what the teacher wants them to do, and why this will help them to learn.

4. Roles and responsibilities

4.1. Governors will maintain a positive partnership with staff, pupils and other agencies by:

These examples are not exhaustive, but illustrate the types of behaviour that will not be tolerated and the possible responses.

- The headteacher has the ability to strip particular staff members of the power to issue disciplines, where appropriate.

- It is more challenging for midday supervisors and duty staff to deal with challenging behaviour and to continue to carry out the supervision of pupils during social time. If an incident occurs that is deemed to be serious, it will be passed to an appropriate member of staff to investigate and resolve. Where the behaviour is unacceptable but at a low level, the member of staff on duty will complete a Behaviour Slip (see appendix D) and hand it in to the office. Staff in the office will log the details in SIMS and pass the Behaviour Slip to the tutor for information via the form box.

- In the event of any type of exclusion, the headteacher will inform the pupil's parents/carers of the exclusion via written notification, which outlines the nature of the incident, the exclusion duration and any alternative provision supplied.

- The decision to exclude a pupil is invariably done on the grounds that the pupil's behaviour constitutes such a breach of school conduct that other disciplines are not sufficient.
- For breaches of school conduct, the head of year has the ability to place pupils within their year group on internal exclusion.
- During internal exclusion, the pupil involved will undertake all their work whilst in an appropriate area whilst supervised by a senior colleague.
- For extreme breaches of school conduct, the headteacher can place a pupil on fixed-term exclusion, which will be completed by the pupil from their home and can last up to 15 days.
- The relevant head of year and staff members can recommend that a pupil is excluded; however, it is ultimately the headteacher's decision.
- In the absence of the headteacher, the deputy headteacher will make the decisions concerning a pupil's exclusion.
- The headteacher has the ability to permanently exclude a pupil who has seriously breached the school's Behaviour for Learning, or who is a persistent offender.
- Permanent exclusions will be considered by the governing body for authorisation.
- This Exclusion Protocol, will be followed at all times, ensuring that parents/carers are suitably informed and are made aware of their right to appeal.

- Drugs

The school will not tolerate drug use of any sort on school property or during off-site school activities. The school will not tolerate drug use of any sort on school property or during off-site school activities. The school takes its stance on drugs very seriously and will discipline any person found to be in possession of or using drugs. This includes solvents and any other substance that can be misused or harmful. Students may be permanently excluded if they are found to be involved in drug-related incidents. This includes supplying, possessing, or taking drugs.

Prescription drugs

Carrying, supplying or taking prescription drugs illegitimately could result in a permanent exclusion.

Non-prescription drugs

Some over-the-counter drugs can be harmful if misused. We advise that students should not carry these in school. If they need medication they can go to the school nurse.

Medication

We are aware that it may be necessary for some students to take medication during the school day. Parents should make the school aware of this in writing as soon as their child starts taking the medication. Further details around medication is set out in the “Supporting Students with Medical Conditions” policy.

Illegal Substances

Any pupil found to be in possession of an illegal substance will face a full investigation which could result in a permanent exclusion.

- Monitoring and review

- This policy is monitored for effectiveness by the Governing body, the headteacher and SLT, and will be reviewed every two years.

Behaviour Referral Process

Behaviour For Learning: Aims and Ethos

At Henlow Church of England Academy we have created an environment that allows children to gain an outstanding education and achieve their full potential in terms of personal, emotional and intellectual growth. We enable pupils to become resilient, independent learners and caring community members we can be proud of, allowing them to succeed in an increasingly demanding and ever-changing world.

We provide a caring ethos where excellence is celebrated and positive discipline enables individuals to feel valued and supported. The school also values an ethos of learning, responsibility and respect where learning is at the heart of the school, responsibility for ourselves and respect facilitates learning at every level.

We employ a variety of rewards and sanctions that meet the requirements of explicit standards. Pupils work most effectively when they are valued and rewarded for their efforts, achievements and general citizenship. We focus on positive reinforcement and as a result, disruptive behaviour is minimised. Working alongside the Code of Behaviour the rewards and merits system motivates the pupils and allows them to share in their success both as individuals and as groups.

We balance our rewards systems with agreed sanctions. Our hierarchical approach begins at Stage 1 with low-level infringements of the Code of Behaviour through to Stage 5 for more serious misdemeanours. These sanctions are used in conjunction with a wide range of classroom management strategies to ensure excellent Behaviour for Learning.
